

Mini donated for Charity - The Italian Job 2008

Last Updated Thursday, 16 October 2008

This year A4AUDI and B4BMW are proud to sponsor a Mini to take part in the yearly 'Italian Job Rally'. The car will be used to pull in as many donations as possible and the raised money will go to BBC Children in Need. First the Mini will set out on the yearly 'The Italian Job' Rally from Imola in Italy to Brighton in the UK and then it will be used for a host of other charitable opportunities.

This year A4AUDI and B4BMW are proud to sponsor a Mini to take part in the yearly 'Italian Job Rally'. The car will be used to pull in as many donations as possible and the raised money will go to BBC Children in Need. First the Mini will set out on the yearly 'The Italian Job' Rally from Imola in Italy to Brighton in the UK and then it will be used for a host of other charitable opportunities.

Along route from Italy to the UK the Mini will play a huge part in raising donations and funds for BBC Children in Need. The drivers, Zena Melki and Gordon Connelly will at some stage during the race be accompanied by a celebrity... who you ask?.. now that would be telling.

Please give a donation to a very worthy charity, Children in Need.